

NSIC- CARE SSI Rating – Rating Symbols and Definition

Symbols	Rating Definition
SE 1A	Highest Performance capability; High Financial strength. Prospects of performance are the highest and the entity has high capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 1B	Highest Performance capability; Moderate Financial strength. Prospects of performance are the highest. However, the entity has moderate capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 1C	Highest Performance capability; Low Financial strength. Prospects of performance are the highest. However, the entity has low capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 2A	High Performance capability; High Financial strength. Prospects of performance are high and the entity has high capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 2B	High Performance capability; Moderate Financial strength. Prospects of performance are high. However, the entity has moderate capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 2C	High Performance capability; Low Financial strength. Prospects of performance are high. However, the entity has low capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 3A	Moderate Performance capability; High Financial strength. Prospects of performance are moderate. However, the entity has high capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 3B	Moderate Performance capability; Moderate Financial strength. Prospects of performance are moderate and the entity has moderate capacity to meet its financial obligations.

Symbols	Rating Definition
SE 3C	Moderate Performance capability; Low Financial strength. Prospects of performance are moderate. However, the entity has low capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 4A	Weak Performance capability; High Financial strength. Prospects of performance are weak. However, the entity has high capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 4B	Weak Performance capability; Moderate Financial strength. Prospects of performance are weak. However, the entity has moderate capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 4C	Weak Performance capability; Low Financial strength. Prospects of performance are weak and the entity has low capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 5A	Poor Performance capability; High Financial strength. Prospects of performance are poor. However, the entity has high capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 5B	Poor Performance capability; Moderate Financial strength. Prospects of performance are poor. However, the entity has moderate capacity to meet its financial obligations.
SE 5C	Poor Performance capability; Low Financial strength. Prospects of performance are poor and the entity has low capacity to meet its financial obligations.