Company is at advanced stages of installation of distillery unit and its ability to ram up the production will be key to its credit profile. These rating weaknesses are partially offset by long track record and experienced promoters and improved profitability margins.

Detailed description of the key rating drivers

Key Rating Weaknesses

Moderate scale of operations

Davangere Sugars is largely reliant on the sugar segment alone as almost 85-95% of its total operating income is contributed by the sugar segment and hence is more vulnerable to sugar cyclicality vis-à-vis other players who are forward integrated into distillery & Cogenerations. Davangere sugar mill operations are partially forward integrated in form of 24.45 MW co-generation unit. The income from sale of power ESCOM's contributes around 8-10% of the total income. The total operating income of the company has subbed to Rs.147.81 Cr in FY21 when compared to Rs.203.29 Cr in FY20 majorly on account of reduced sales in sugar lower mainly due to low market demand and sugar realizations due to covid and nationwide imposed restrictions. In 9MFY22 the Total operating income stood at Rs.76.92 Cr.

Leveraged capital structure with moderate debt coverage indicators

Overall gearing of the company has improved marginally and stood at 1.96x as on March 31,2021 when compared 2.14x as on March 31, 2020. The improvement in the gearing ratio is on account of lower working capital utilisation as on March 31,2021 coupled with accretion of profits. Interest coverage ratios marked by PBILDT to interest coverage stood at 1.73x in FY21 when compared to 1.53x in FY20 on account of lower interest and finance cost in FY21.

Debt coverage indicators marked by Total debt /PBILDT stood at 6.55x in FY21 when compared to 5.94x in FY20 an account of comparatively lower PBILDT margins in absolute terms when compared to FY20. Total debt to GCA was high at though improved to 15.50x in FY21 when compared to 17.20x in FY20 on account of comparatively lower debt levels.

Elongation in operating cycle

The sugar industry is characterized by high levels of inventory holding (due to seasonality associated with sugarcane), coupled with low credit on sugarcane purchase, makes the operations of the company working capital intensive. Sugar industry being seasonal in nature has high working capital requirements during the peak season which is from November to April. The companies have high working capital requirements during the peak season to procure their primary raw material, i.e., sugarcane and manufacture sugar during this period. The average working capital utilization remains high at 92.98% for the trailing twelve months ended February 28, 2022. Operating cycle of the company stood at 212 days in FY21 when compared to 193 days in FY20. Deterioration in operating cycle is on account of increase in average collection period and high inventory periods. Total inventory holding period has declined and stood at 139 days when compared to 160 days in FY20, however collection period has seen a deterioration and stood at 78 days in FY21 when compared to 42 days in FY20 on account of higher credit period offered to its customers on account of covid-19 and average creditor's payment period stood at 5 days when compared to 9 days in FY20 as mostly are sugarcane payables to the farmers. As on January 31,2022 the inventory holding stood high at 105.16 Cr on account of higher molasses storage for ethanol production in FY23 off season.

Cyclical and regulated nature of the industry

The industry is cyclical by nature and is vulnerable to the government policies for various factors like its importance in the Wholesale Price Index (WPI), as sugar is classified as an essential commodity. The governments (both Union and State) resort to various regulations such as fixing the raw material (sugarcane) prices in the form of Fair & Remunerative Prices (FRP) and State Advised Prices (SAP). All these factors impact the cultivation patterns of sugarcane in the country and thus affect the profitability of the sugar companies. India also continues to carry high levels of sugar inventory largely due to the controlled release mechanism followed by the Government.

Inherent to Agro-climactic risk

The sugar industry, being directly dependent on the sugarcane crop and its yield, is susceptible to agro climatic risks including pest & diseases. Climatic conditions, more specifically, the monsoons influence various operational parameters for a sugar entity, such as the crushing period and sugar recovery levels.
